WITNESS IS WARNED

She Is to Testify in the Trial of Hooper Young.

LIFE IS THREATENED

Miss Elizabeth Dickenson, a Former Member of the Mormon Church, Informed That Her Life May Be Forfeited.

New York, Jan. 28.—The witness in the Hooper Young murder case who has received anonymous letters threatening that if she gives evidence against the grandson of Brigham Young she will pay for it with her own life, is Miss Elizabeth Dickenson. Miss Dickenson received a number of letters, all in a man's handwriting, some written plainly in black ink and some in red ink. All are of similar tenor.

Passages from the book of Mormon are quoted and she is told plainly that it will imperil her life if she discloses any of the things she learned while a member of the Mormon church or testifies to having seen Young and Mrs. Pulitzer together at any meetings she attended.

In June, 1901, Miss Dickenson was baptized and became a regular member of the Mormon church. Until after her admission into the church, she said, nothing was said to her of polygamy or blood atonement, and when she was urged to go to Salt Lake City and enter into what was described to her as a spiritual marriage, she renounced her recently acquired religion. That was last August. She removed to a small town in New Jersey, near Long Branch, but about six weeks ago obtained her present position, and the threatening letters have been addressed to her in care of her employer.

AS TO OLNEY.

Former President Cleveland Is Noncommittal on the Subject.

New York, Jan. 28.—Because former President Cleveland and Richard Olney, who served under him as secretary of state, met at the Waldorf-Astoria after the recent Hewitt memorial at the City club, a report has been circulated that the object of the meeting was the starting of a boom for the presidential nomination next year. Mr. Cleveland, when asked about the report, remarked: "I have not a gift of prophecy, so I cannot say what will be done as to his nomination."

"Would you favor Mr. Olney's candidacy?"

"I have already shown my confidence in him," was his reply, "by inviting him to become my secretary of state."

Further Mr. Cleveland would not talk except to say that his call was a social one.

LONG TERM.

List of the Senators Who Will Serve for Four Years

Austin, Jan. 28.—The house passed finally the bill extending the time in which Nacogdoches, Burleson, Washington and other counties have to pay taxes to March 1, 1903.

A resolution was adopted instructing Texas senators and congressmen to work for a navy yard for the head of Galveston bay.

In the senate the following senators drew long or four-year terms: Beatty, Brachfield, Davidson of DeWitt, Davidson of Galveston, Decker, Faulk, Hale, Hanger, Hicks, Hill, Martin, McKamy, Paulus, Stafford, Willacy and Wilson—16. Following drew short or two-year terms: Cain, Douglass, Faubion, Faust, Grinnan, Harbison, Harper, Henderson, Lipscomb, Mills, Morris, Patterson, Perkins, Savage and Sebastian—15.

Stafford had passed bill defining who are qualified jurors, to meet requirements of poll tax amendment.

Salute of Twenty-One Guns.

Austin, Jan. 28.—President Prather of the university and Adjutant General Scurry are arranging to fire a salute of twenty-one guns March 2, the sixty-seventh anniversary of Texas independence.

Suit against bondsmen of W. R. Colender, ex-tax collector of Victoria, was decided in favor of the state. Amount sued for was $12,843, alleged to be due state for taxes.

Alleged Lynchers on Trial.

Kosciusko, Miss., Jan. 28.—Habeas corpus trials of the twelve alleged lynchers of Monroe Hallam and James Caston are now progressing here and are expected to consume the week. Counsel demanded Robert Milner to be first placed on trial. Milner's defense is an alibi. The two negroes were shot to death by an armed body of men last July at a cross roads fourteen miles north of Kosciusko. Governor Longino designated attorneys especially to represent the state in the prosecution.

Gold at Wooten Wells.

Wooten Wells, Tex., Jan. 28.—Much interest is aroused here over the reported discovery of a strong vein of gold a few miles south of here. The land is owned by a negro, Ike Lewis, and indications of gold were brought to his notice by dirt from a well he was boring.

AWFUL TRAIN WRECK

Royal Blue Flyer Ploughed Into a Local Express.

LOSS OF LIFE GREAT.

The Engine and Three of the Cars Were Piled in a Heap Containing at Least One Hundred Dead and Injured.

New York, Jan. 28.—One of the most appalling railroad wrecks that has happened in the vicinity of New York for many years, the estimated loss of life, ranging from twelve to thirty persons, occurred Tuesday night at Graceland, on the Central Railroad of New Jersey, near Westfield, N. J., when the Royal Blue Line express ploughed at top speed into the rear end of a local train.

After the crash three cars of the local train took fire rendering impossible the rescue of many of the wounded, who were pinned fast in the wreck. Many bodies are believed to have been consumed.

On board the flyer all the passengers, although badly shaken up, escaped uninjured except for trifling bruises.

Passengers on the flyer say the engineer applied all the brakes hard a minute or so before the wreck. The train ahead had sent a flagman back, but it seems he was recalled when the train got under way, and, although he left torpedoes, the Royal Blue did not heed them, or else was going too fast to stop in the short distance remaining. The man who went back to flag the train had just swung into the rear end of his train and is among the dead. The engine and the three worst wrecked cars were piled in a heap containing at least 100 dead and injured. From the mass came fearful cries for aid. A minute later the wreck caught fire from the firebox. The passengers in the two forward cars of the first train and all the men from the express and every one in the neighborhood started at work to get out the injured before the flames could reach them. At times while toiling in the wreckage the flames reached the rescuers and their clothing took fire, but they worked on though in danger of death themselves. Some of the injured were burned to death in sight of the men who were working with desperation to save them.

NEGOTIATORS MET.

First Joint Conference Was Held in the Apartments of Bowen.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The first joint conference of the Venezuelan negotiators occurred Tuesday afternoon by appointment at Mr. Bowen's apartments the ranking diplomat, Dignor Mayor des Planchos, the Italian ambassador, making the representations in French to Mr. Bowen.

The question under discussion was the matter of the merest detail, the envoys wishing to know whether the monthly payments to the allies should be in proportion to the amount of the claims or whether Great Britain, Germany and Italy would receive the same amount each month until the indemnity was paid. Mr. Bowen said he was quite willing to leave this to the powers themselves to settle and that any arrangement they might make would be satisfactory to Venezuela.

Another detail which has not been yet cleared up involves the question of preferential treatment of the allied powers, as against France, Denmark, Holland, Norway and Sweden. Belgium, Spain and the United States in the payment of indemnity.

The point was made by Venezuela's representative, that should the dispute be referred to The Hague tribunal all the powers would be required to stand on an equality and furthermore that as this question did not form a part of the allies condition precedent to the raising of the blockade, it did not seem fair that it should be presented as essential, now that Venezuela had complied with the original proposition and offered a satisfactory guaranty. This answer was cabled to the foreign offices at London, Berlin and Rome.

New York, Jan. 28.—William Landau, a former cotton merchant of Dallas, Tex., surrendered to United States Commissioner Shields to answer an indictment found against him in Dallas charging him with using the mails for fraudulent purposes. Landau waived examination and furnished bail to appear in Dallas at the next term of criminal court.

Regular Sum.

Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 28.—The senate resolution by Mr. Hickam of Payne county passed that body of the Oklahoma legislature, providing for turning into the state treasury of Oklahoma all fees in excess of $1800 annually received in the office of Territorial Secretary Grimes, thus cutting his annual salary to $3600.

BRYAN, TEXAS, JAN. 29, 1903

The legislature is going to take another fall out of the trusts.

The bubonic plague in Mexico is a greater menace than the Venezuelan embroglio.

Let it not be said of the Brazos county farmers' institute that "it came to its own and its own received it not." The farmers are the ones who will be principally benefited by it, and through them all others.

The president's nerve force and mental machinery are doubtless fully occupied these days with the trust question, the negro question and the general financial and industrial situation. He is also looking for strong opposition to his renomination, but says it will take a "cataclysm" to defeat him. What a terrible alternative confronts the country!

The president should invite the negro, James H. Hays to the white house and give him a dinner on raw meat and warm blood. In all seriousness, the Roosevelt policy is the direct cause of such incendiary outbursts as Hays gave vent to in his speech at Washington, and the president is doing the negroes more harm than can be repaired in years of patient labor. As for Hays, he probably knows enough about geography to play safety.

LECTURE BY MRS. CHERRY.

The young ladies of the Shakespeare club presented Mrs. Emma Richardson Cherry to a Bryan audience for the first time Tuesday afternoon. She was introduced to expectant guests by one of Bryan's gifted club women, Mrs. A. J. Buchanan. From her remarks Mrs. Buchanan lead the ladies to expect a great deal, and in no way were they disappointed. Mrs. Cherry has a very gracious manner, and charming personality and her listeners followed her discourse easily, it being delivered clearly and with precision, showing how thoroughly Mrs. Cherry had her subject. "How shall we know the greatest paintings and sculpture?" in hand.

Although the lecture was given to swell the library fund the affair did not lose its social side. The guests were met in the hall by the ladies of the Shakespeare Club and in the library they were received by Mesdames Parker, Cherry, G. S. Parker, Astin, Coulter, Wilkerson, A. M. Rhodes, McKenzie and H. G. Rhodes. Punch was served in the dining room which was decorated with holly and mistletoe. From every point of view the afternoon was quite a success, and the young ladies desire to thank the Bryan people for their most liberal patronage.

The following musical program was given by the young ladies of the club and proved a charming addition to the entertainment:

Grand Valse Brillante Op 18, Chopin, Miss Parks.

WHAT IS A FARMERS' INSTITUTE?

No Expense Attached to Membership—No Schemes to be Promoted.

I wish every farmer in Brazos county would, at some time between now and next Saturday, give the above question just ten consecutive minutes thought. I am sure that if they would there would be no reasonable cause for complaint of the small attendance of farmers at the next meeting of the Brazos County Farmers' Institute or of any meeting again of the same in the future. I can attribute your lack of interest, brother, farmer to no other cause than that you have not attended one of the meetings nor have stopped to think of what a farmers' institute means, or of its objects and its specific importance to the progress of our agriculture. I have taken a few minutes time to ask myself the question that I wish you to investigate.

In the abstract the definition of the words farmers' institute must be farmers' institution; farmers' education; the discussion of farmers' interests, and the principles of agriculture.

Then the Brazos County Farmers' Institute is an organized society established by the authority of each individual for their mutual instruction and education; mutual advancement of agricultural interests and principles; not only in business but also in pleasures. It is bound to be a grand institution for the farmer and his noble calling. I will go to the meeting and join it, and help it out at least by my presence all I can and get all the benefit from it for myself that I can. The above is my idea of the farmers' institute and my conclusions. How does it compare with yours? How about those lines from Pope?

"And what should most excite a mutual flame,
Your rural cares and pleasures are the same."

It is an established proposition that two heads are better than one. Then why not get together and help bear one another's cares and promote each other's pleasures. We can do this in a farmers' institute without the hazarding of our finances one cent.

There are no financial ventures to be connected with the farmers' institute. If you should want a truck growers' association or any other kind of business venture you would have to go outside of the farmers' institute to organize it. Our farmers' institute is purely what its name implies—educational and instructive. This alone is bound to promote our every interest and where is there any risk in it? Where is there any danger of losing?

The institute is ours to make us more competent, and "competency is the best incentive to industry." You know that with the proper incentive to bear us on no hard work ever hurts us; it is the work without the incentive that makes a fellow lead his horse to the barn in the evening with trembling knees and aching head, deaf to the mocking bird's sweetest song and blind to "the wild flower's modest nod" along the trail.

You are a farmer because you love the farm; you love nature; you love and esteem noble agriculture! If you were farming with no other incentive than the dollar you were certainly in a "hard way to serve the Lord," and very likely you would be better situated were you in a "cool cabin," or "carrying the hod" somewhere.

But I believe there are very few farmers that do not love and esteem their calling. Only we are too prone to nurse the cares and allow the pleasures to go unheeded. Come out to the institute meetings regularly and by rubbing up against each other we will brush off the rust from our better nature so that they will shine till they make us glad that we live on a beautiful farm in a beautiful country and we will be proud of a glorious agriculture that is held in high esteem, first by ourselves and then by the whole commonwealth.
McDuff Simpson.

M'KINLEY'S BIRTHDAY.

President Roosevelt Eulogizes the Former Chief Magistrate.
Canton, O., Jan. 28.—President Roosevelt Tuesday night participated in a notable tribute to the memory of the late President McKinley. He was the principal orator at a banquet given under the auspices of the Canton Republican league in commemoration of the birthday of McKinley. Surrounded by friends, neighbors and business and political associates of the dead president he pronounced a brilliant and eloquent eulogy upon the life and works of McKinley.

The banquet was held in the Grand opera house, seats being removed in the pit and the house entirely refloored for the occasion. The interior of the building was beautifully decorated with flags and flowers. The floral decorations were particularly elaborate. A selected orchestra of twenty-five pieces furnished exquisite music.

Among the guests at the banquet tables were some of the most distinguished in the civil, public and political life of the country. Judge W. R. Day was toastmaster. Soon after the close of a reception at the Hotel McKinley, President Roosevelt and party walked in a driving rain from the hotel to the banquet hall, a half a square distant, through streets thronged with people. Special precautions were taken to insure the safety of the president. As the president entered the banquet hall the assemblage arose and cheered him heartily. The demonstration was as a personal tribute to the president, which he acknowledged with evident pleasure. As soon as the president and party were seated the doors of the balcony and gallery were opened, and in a few minutes both were crowded.

As the president rose to speak the audience rose and cheered him enthusiastically. The speaker eulogized the late President McKinley most feelingly.

During the day President McKinley's tomb was visited.

FAILED TO HOLD.

Quay Made an Effort to Keep a Quorum in Senate, but Was Unsuccessful.

Washington, Jan. 28.—Senator Quay made an effort Tuesday to hold the senate in continuance session to consider the statehood bill, but failed to hold a quorum and was compelled on that account to allow the senate to adjourn at 6:20 p. m. He secured another ballot, however, to test the sentiment of the senate, the vote standing 17 to 29 in his favor. The day was spent in consideration of the statehood bill, with the exception of an hour devoted to a speech by Mr. Scott, of West Virginia on the pension laws.

The feature of the statehood bill under special consideration Tuesday was the Arizona refunding proposition. It was charged that the territory was sought to repudiate bonds held by Hon. Bird S. Color, late Democratic candidate for governor of New York.

Mr. Beveridge presented a petition from the Indian Territory for statehood, which was read at the senator's request. He then proceeded to explain his reason for the reading, whereupon Mr. Aldrich remonstrated, saying that it was opposed to the senate rules to read a petition in detail and also to enter into debate upon it. He said both practices were growing in the senate and that both were reprehensible.

TWENTY BILLS.

Lower House of Congress Passes That Number of Measures.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The house devoted Tuesday to bills reported from the judiciary committee, passing about 20. Most of them were of a minor character, but two were of general importance. One was to meet the original package decision of the supreme court by making intoxicating liquors imported into states subject to the jurisdiction of such states. The bill is designated to prevent evasion under the original package decision of liquor laws in prohibition states.

The other bill is the senate bill to increase the salaries of federal judges. It raises the salaries of the chief justice of the supreme court to $13,000, the associate justices to $12,500; circuit judges to $7000; district judges to $6000; the chief justice of the court of claims to $6500; associate justices to $6000 and the justices of the supreme court of the District of Columbia to $6000.

Mr. Randell of Texas offered an amendment to prohibit federal judges from accepting free transportation from railroads or telegraph or telephone franks.

"I move to amend by adding 'members of congress,' said Mr. Babcock. "I accept the amendment," replied Mr. Randell.

Mr. Mann, however, made a point of order against it and was sustained. The bill was passed—125 to 74.

MEXICAN MATTERS.

Happenings of Interest in the Republic to the Southwest.

City of Mexico, Jan. 28.—President Diaz is suffering from a slight attack of grip.

United States Ambassador Clayton has gone to Cuernavaca, to recover from an obstinate attack of bronchitis having been for some time confined to his room here.

Arrangements for the sale of the Mexico railway, which runs southward 110 kilometers from this city, in the direction of the City of Puebla, have been concluded between the owners and G. W. Weaver, representing New York parties. The price is $2,000,000. The road is a three foot gauge and gets freight from cotton factories, paper mills, flour mills, etc. Thomas Braniff, a well known American millionaire of this city, is one of the principal owners of the line.

A Pretty Home Wedding Was Solemnized
Last Night.

At the home of the bride's father
Mr. Thomas W. Higgs, at 8:30 o'clock last night, Miss Bertha Higgs and Mr. William I. Mc-Cullough were united in marriage by Dr. J. D. West, pastor of the Presbyterian church.

The rooms were tastefully decorated with palms, ferns and other pot plants and filled with relatives and friends of the family gathered to witness the happy celebration.

At the appointed hour the bride and groom entered, preceded by the bride's sister, Miss Stella Higgs, Mendleson's wedding march being played by Miss Tranny Wren, and the officiating minister administered the vows and invoked the blessing of God upon the union.
Congratulations were then offered with a heartiness that gave abundant evidence of the popularity of the young people. Refreshments were served. Numerous handsome presents were received.

The bride's dress was of castor cloth elaborately trimmed in taffeta and fur. The stylish blouse opens over a handsome white vest, over blue crepe de chene and lace front. The conventional black was worn by the groom.

The bride is one of the sweetest of the Bryan girls and will bring into her home the admirable qualities of true womanliness.

SILVER BARS STOLEN.

In a Running Fight a Mexican Was Shot
Through the Heart.
Alamogordo, N. M., Jan. 28.—Somewhere between this place and El Paso, Tex., United States bonded car in transit from the El Paso smelter to Chicago loaded with 800 bars of silver bullion was entered by robbers and eighty bars stolen. At Jarillo Junction the broken seal was discovered, and an investigation revealed three Mexicans in the car. When an attempt was made to eject them they pulled knives and a lively fight took place, in which the crew drove away the robbers. At Dog Canyon Sheriff Hunter saw three Mexicans, who took to the brush. A call to halt was answered by a fusillade.
A running fight followed. Hunter shot one Mexican through the heart. The other two men escaped. The officials are of the opinion that the bonded car was entered just outside of El Paso by the robbers, who threw the bars out of the car to be gathered up by confederates. The value of the missing bullion is estimated at $40,000.

Indigestion Causes Catarrh of the Stomach.

For many years it has been supposed that Catarrh of the Stomach caused indigestion and dyspepsia, but the truth is exactly the opposite. Indigestion causes catarrh. Repeated attacks of indigestion inflame the mucous membranes lining the stomach and expose the nerves of the stomach, thus causing the glands to secrete mucus instead of the juices of natural digestion. This is called Catarrh of the Stomach.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

relieves all inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the stomach, protects the nerves, and cures bad breath, sour risings,
a sense of fullness after eating, indigestion,
dyspepsia and all stomach troubles.

THE ANNUAL EVENT OF TWO NATIONS

Yaqui-George Washington The "Laredo's"

Some years since the citizens of Laredo, Texas and New Laredo, Mexico, conceived the idea of celebrating George Washington's Birth Anniversary (February 22) by suitable "Mexican-American" festas and parades, and from a small source this has grown to a MAGNIFICENT AN-NUAL EVENT unsurpassed in its splendid surroundings and interesting particulars by anything of a similar nature.

International in its character, located on the border line between the Great Republics, occurring at a season of the year when business cares press lightly, and at a time when weather conditions in that locality are ideal, this event offers unsurpassed inducements to the pleasure seeker.

This year the festivities, will consist of two days continuous festivities, February 22nd and 23rd, and the program, which is very elaborate, will comprise many new and interesting features among which may be mentioned Famous Spanish Bull Fights,
Grand Cattle Roping Contests, torchlight parades, embodying typical Mexican and Indian features. Naval fire works, Sham Battle and Capture of the city by the Indians, Military drills and display Evolutions, Historical Pageants and Trades Display, Flower carnival, band and musical contests, etc.

For this occasion low excursion rates will be in effect to Laredo, also for the benefit of those who desire to see more of Mexican life and customs, arrangements have been made for sale of excursion tickets to MONTEREY, MEXICO with ten (10) day's limit, permitting stop-over at Laredo in order to witness the International celebration.
